Hi Jacob and Erinn,

I am touching base to confirm your plans for the end of tenancy being next Tuesday, 31st March 2026.

As per the ACAT orders, the property is to be returned no later than 5pm on this date. Can you please confirm if you will return keys to our Kingston office no later than 5pm or if you will leave them in the property for us to collect.

At this stage, the only outstanding balance owing is the 3x water consumption invoices totaling $890.19. Rent is paid to and including 31st March 2026.

If you believe there will be any issues with the above and adhering to the termination orders, please advise ASAP.

Hi Jenna,

Thank you for touching base.

We do need to flag that we are unlikely to be in a position to vacate by 31 March. We have submitted 18 rental applications and have not yet secured a property. With the Easter long weekend beginning immediately after the 31st, real estate offices are closing and no leases can commence until after the break — which is outside of our control.

We are respectfully requesting a short extension through to 7 April. We are happy to pay rent as normal for this period. We understand the 31st was set by ACAT and are not asking to avoid our obligations — we simply need a small window to allow the industry to reopen after Easter so we can finalise something.

Regarding the water invoices — we are currently awaiting a response from the utility provider regarding the usage amounts, as we believe one of the bills reflects abnormally high usage. We will follow up with you as soon as we hear back.

We appreciate your understanding and are happy to discuss further if needed.

Hi Jacob,

In line with the ACAT orders, we will be putting an application for the warrant for eviction with the ACAT registrar on Wednesday 1st April.

I appreciate this may not be the outcome you want given circumstances, but we need to act within the ACAT orders and the owner's best interests.

Kind regards,

Jenna Fruend

Hi Jenna,

Thank you for your understanding during this challenging time and for the update. We completely respect the current ACAT orders and thought to let you know we are urgently applying to ACAT today for a short extension due to accommodation and service availability issues over the long weekend. We will of course fully comply with whatever ACAT decides.

Thanks,
Jacob

Hi Jenna,

Following up on our agreed vacate date of March 31st.

We've secured our new property and are fully committed to moving out. However, due to the Easter long weekend, all professional removalists and cleaners are fully booked in our price range until Monday, April 6th. We can hand over keys on Tuesday, April 7th by 5pm.

We'd like to propose:
• Final vacate date: Tuesday, April 7th, 5pm
• Pro-rata rent payment for April 1-7 (7 days)
• Property professionally cleaned and ready for inspection

This avoids the time and cost of tribunal proceedings for both parties. If you're agreeable, we can formalize this through a mutual agreement or ACAT consent orders to ensure this will be the final date if accepted.

Please let me know if this works. We highly appreciate your consideration thanks.

Regards,
Erinn & Jacob

Good afternoon,

I spoke with helpline today after they spoke with Jacob.

They have let me know that your date of termination and possession is next Tuesday 31/03/2026.

As your efforts have been unsuccessful with finding a new rental – I recommended calling 02 6162 6100.

This number is MaryMead Catholic Care, and they might be able to help with some crisis housing for you guys and the little ones.

If you are seeking to contest the decision, there are avenues through ACAT but I am not sure if that will assist as the date of the orders is so soon.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Dear Kimberlee

Thank you for your response — we truly appreciate your continued support.

As you are aware of the background of our case, we are writing to urgently seek your advice on the following:

The property manager (Jenna, Belle Property) has confirmed they will be applying for a warrant for eviction with the ACAT Registrar on 1 April. The warrant has not yet been issued.

We believe we have strong grounds to return to ACAT, specifically:

- ACAT indicated willingness to grant up to 12 months had we been able to prove our income — we were never given a proper opportunity to do so, as Centrelink was inaccessible from 24 December to 6 January.
- Erinn's postpartum recovery was not adequately considered — this directly cost us the one to two weeks needed for our payments to come into effect.
- Our financial position has since materially changed: Jacob has secured full-time contract work and Erinn has secured Centrelink payments, giving us a combined documented fortnightly income of $2,500.
- We have submitted 18 rental applications (11 declined) and face the Easter long weekend with all services unavailable.

We would like to know:
1. Can we make an urgent application to ACAT to extend the termination date based on the above?
2. Can we seek an interim order to stay the warrant for eviction while this is reviewed?

We are available immediately and understand time is critical.

Kind regards,
Jacob merlin

Sorry i forgot to add,

we asked jenna to extend our stay until the 7th of april and she replied that she will be handing the warrant request in on april the 1st. we are just on a tight deadline and needed more time and that was the response we got so were just trying to do anything we can weve exhausted alot of options maybe acat could give us a better date due to our income changing.

Good morning,

Thank you for the below response.

As I am not a lawyer, I cannot give you any legal advice regarding the current matter.

I recommended you act on the latest legal advice you and Erinn have received from Georgia last Thursday.

Please let me know if you require any assistance with the MaryMead Catholic Care crisis accommodation onboarding and I will be happy to assist.

Regards,

Kay
